MILESTONE

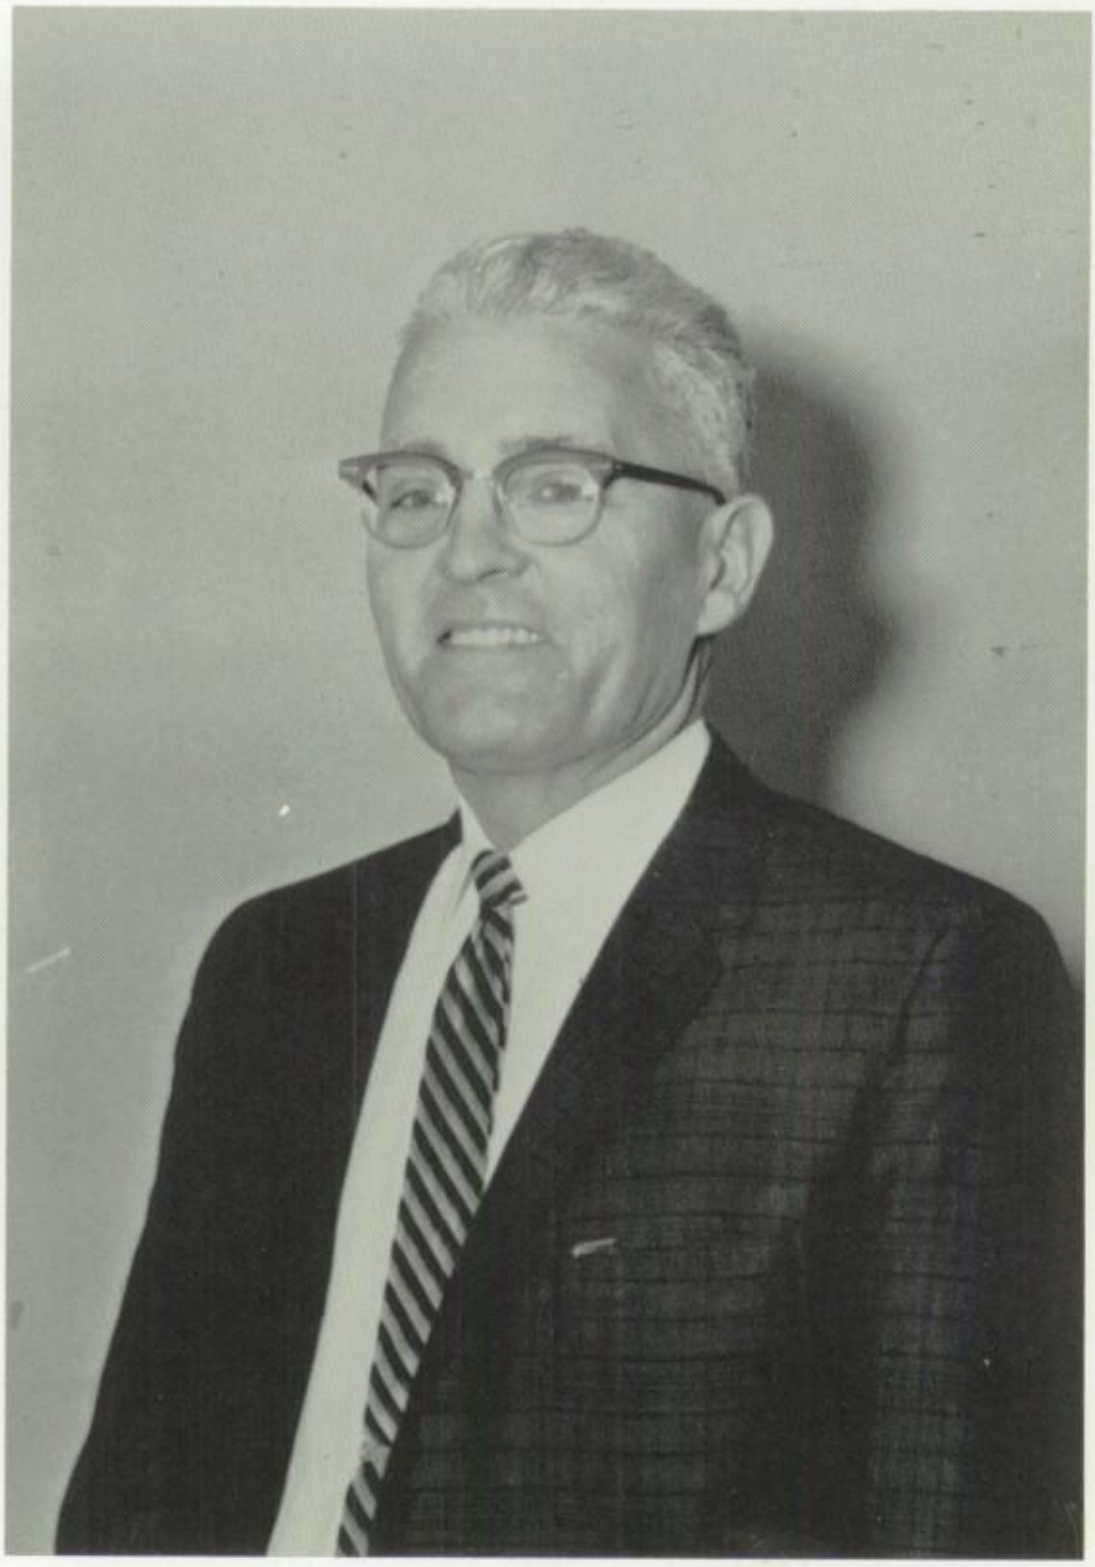
Presented by the Yearbook Staff
Milford Central School
Milford, New York

Dedication 1965



With deep gratitude and sincere respect for your ceaseless efforts to aid your students in acquiring knowledge, the 1965 Milestone Staff dedicates this issue to you, Mr. Hartwell.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. HAMMOND, Principal

Alfred North Whitehead once said, "In the conditions of modern life the rule is absolute: the race which does not value trained intelligence is doomed. Not all your heroism, not all your social charm, not all your wit, not all your victories on land or sea, can move back the finger of fate."

It is evident to me that the students of Milford Central appreciate this truth. May they always continue on that high road to achievement.

Will

Ted W. leaves his reputation to whoever can live up to it. Hoping that nobody catches up with him, Dan M. leaves. To Judy B. go Ramona K.'s quiet ways while Carol H. leaves her cafeteria job to Sandy T. Steve F. leaves his place on the demolition crew to whoever can live up to the job, but Bob Perry leaves the place in shambles. Rosalie G. is leaving Mr. Winslow yelling at someone else. Kathy B's smile goes to Mary Jo. B. Charlie L. leaves Mr. Hammond wondering what to do with the empty chair.

Bob Pitcher leaves his talking ability to Dan W. who really doesn't need it. Jan P.'s finger nails go to whoever can take care of them. Carol C. leaves her shorthand marks to her sister, but Judy H. leaves her shorthand skills to Susie D. Fran S. has left Mr. Maas the privilege of making posters. Joe W. receives Chris N.'s nickname, T.T. The quiet ways and rapid walk of John W. go to next year's Seniors. Diana W. leaves her bruises to Dave W., hoping that he has a guilty conscience. Lee W. just leaves.

To Janice C. go Rosemary L.'s cramps before gym class. Larry E. leaves his bum knee to anyone on next year's basketball team who wants it. One sore arm belonging to Dave C. is inherited by next year's baseball team. John B. leaves a good left leg to whoever promises not to break it. Mary S.'s temperamental ways are left to someone who will claim them. Glenda S. leaves her high jumping ability and loud voice to next year's cheering squad. Tom W. wills his football injuries to Randy K., but Earl L. leaves his linebacker standing after every play.

Alberta K. receives Tina B.'s secrets and Debbie D.'s excuses to skip cheering practice. Anita D. leaves with the torch still burning. Dale H. wills his attendance card to Duane B. Don S.'s fancy pink wheels go to Mr. Remy. Nan leaves Milford with one less person to talk about. Judy G. leaves her wander lust to Sherry A. Carol F. leaves like the rest of us - wondering how she ever made it.

Prophecy

Our reunion, as our class has always done, will make a first. Instead of the usual reunions, ours is an assembly of talents reflecting what we have made of ourselves. Let's look over the program.

1. Prof Harrison, of Yale University, will speak on the subject of campus immorality.
2. Ted, Charlie, and Dan, The "Tequila Three", will sing "Moonshine River."
3. Ramona and Glenda will give a demonstration in gymnastics.
4. Nurse Nielsen will perform an alcohol test on Dale as lab technician Drake tests the blood samples.
5. Frannie will display the latest in ski equipment used at Cypress Gardens.
6. Don will display the latest in car interior decoration.
7. Carol Kesler will teach the modern method of "Three finger typing."
8. Kathy Burch Smith Muuler Marquart, owner of New York's Playgirl Club, will introduce her two leading bunnies, Larry and Dave.
9. Earl and Bob will display new techniques of pool playing.
10. Rosemary and her husband, Michael Molar, will demonstrate correct dental care.
11. Butler and Wiehl will explain why their latest rocket to Venus failed, and test man Brienza's absence.
12. Diana will demonstrate how to pump Sunoco 260 while wearing a Dutcher original.
13. Furniture designer Hoak will show her latest designs while chiropractor Welsh shows his treatment on owners of this furniture.
14. Janalee will display her paintings from her Italian villa.
15. Rosalie will close with slides she took while working with the Peace Corps.
16. On the absentee list are:
    Vet Pitcher who is treating a mare from Griffin's stable, with Judy assisting.
    Steve and Lee are recovering from the explosion at their brewery.
    Tina and Carol H. are away on a tour showing their ability with rifles.
    Carol F. is in the Broadway production of "Finders Creepers."
    Mary is the current champ at pool in "Mikes."
    Nan is in a Happy Farm from being on too many Yearbook committees.
